

Miró in play

The mysterious word search
A game to hone your eyesight

Fundació Joan Miró * J.M. Barcelona

Do you think you can solve the riddles of the mysterious word search like a true detective?

What will you find in this game?

- 8 works by Joan Miró.
- 8 questions to answer.
- 1 word search.

How do you play the mysterious word search?

- Look carefully at the eight works by Joan Miró and study their titles.
- Answer all of the questions about these works.
- Once you have all the answers, find the words from the responses in the word search.

When you have finished, you can check to see if your answers are correct in the upside down answer key below. Don't look before you have finished! Remember, a good detective never cheats!

Look carefully at these works.

Portrait of a young girl

The bottle of wine

Figure in front of the sun

Woman dreaming of escape

Pair of lovers playing with almond blossoms

Poem (III)

Tapestry of the Fundació

Self-portrait

Answer the following questions. The titles of the works you have been studying will give you many clues.

Have you ever looked at yourself in a magnifying mirror? Try it and you can make a _____.

What colour are this young _____'s eyes? Who is she looking at?

This _____ is quite special. What is inside? What would happen if you were to shake it up and uncork it?

The moon, lines and circles make up this _____. What does "star" rhyme with?

In _____ everything is possible. Who appears in yours?

In the sky there is a very big and bright star, the _____. What face do you make when you look at it?

The _____ of the Fundació is seven and a half metres tall. How tall are you? What is the difference between your height and the height of this work?

These two figures are a pair of _____. What do you think they are talking about?

Find the eight words from your answers in this word search.

1. self-portrait 2. girl 3. bottle 4. poem 5. dreams 6. sun 7. tapestry 8. lovers

Miró in Play is a series of educational resources to help children learn about various aspects of Joan Miró's life, his work and his working processes.

Observe, create and have fun with this collection of games for boys and girls of all ages!

You can use these materials to prepare for your visit to the Fundació Joan Miró or to continue to study more at home or at school.

Fundació Joan Miró  Barcelona

For this edition: © Fundació Joan Miró, Barcelona, 2020
For the works of Joan Miró: © Successió Miró, 2020
Cover illustration: © Clara Sáez

Fundació Joan Miró
Parc de Montjuïc
08038 Barcelona
T +34 934 439 470

www.fmirobcn.org

