The Fundació Joan Miró will be closing down temporarily

Barcelona, 13 March 2020

As part of the effort to contain the COVID-19 outbreak, and in accordance with resolution SLT/720/2020 by the Departament de Salut de la Generalitat de Catalunya concerning preventive measures, the Fundació Joan Miró will be closing down temporarily from today 13 February 2020 at 12 pm, during 15 days at least and until further notice.

All the activities scheduled for this month of March are also cancelled or temporarily postponed. We will continue our efforts towards containing COVID-19 and safeguarding the health of our institution's visitors, users and employees.

We will keep you informed of new developments through our website and social media.

We thank the institutions and people affected by the situation for your comprehension and support and apologize for any inconvenience this may cause.
